AO 472 (Rev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial
<ul> <li>Significant family or other ties outside the United States</li> <li>□ Lack of legal status in the United States</li> <li>□ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration</li> <li>□ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered</li> <li>□ Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement</li> <li>□ Use of alias(es) or false documents</li> <li>□ Background information unknown or unverified</li> <li>□ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release</li> </ul>
OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION: Angel Bruno Roldan-Cervantes is charged by complaint with serving as an airman without a valid certificate to do so, in violation of 49 U.S.C. § 46306(b)(7), and using a false document, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(3). The court found probable cause for both offenses.
The defendant was piloting an aircraft that landed at Hobby Airport in Houston. Agents were investigating the aircraft for possible violations of Export Administration Regulations. Pursuant to that investigation, agents requested copies of Roldan's FAA Pilot's Certificate. He produced a certificate that turned out to be fake. Roldan has no authority to pilot any aircraft within U.S. airspace.
Roldan is a citizen of Mexico and has no meaningful ties to the United States. Although he has been offered a place to live in California, at the time of his arrest his only options were to find a hotel room or return to Mexico. Roldan has significant ties to Mexico. His family is in Mexico. All of his property is in Mexico.
Roldan has the ability to flee. He was flying within the United States using false documents. On balance, his incentive and ability to flee outweigh his incentive to appear in court.
The court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that there are no conditions or a combination of conditions that will assure the defendant's appearance if released.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
